CATALOG #12

CLOSING DATE MONDAY NOV 23, 1987

ITEM		ESTIMATED VALUE
1.	Unique George Washington Medallion, 1x1¼, under glass in gold rim, looped at top. Elaborate script GW as on linked states buttons, surrounded by wreath. The design is inscribed in golden brown on the reverse of the glass front, with a cream colored paper backing. Reverse side is a woven locket of hair under glass, very possibly Washington's, though there is no provenance to determine origin. Highest quality, excellent condition.	750.00
2.	"Long Live the President GW" clothing button, Albert #11C, wide spacing. Nice fine to very fine condition, but original reverse shank is gone, leaving just a small bump. Above average.	550.00
3.	One of the great rarities in Jacksonian medals, Sullivan AJ 1828-10, also known as the "American Troops Attacking" medal. Obverse bust, reverse detailed ground scene "Battle of N. Orleans". Wht met, fine.	850.00

White design on mint green background, near mint condition. Only the second of this design I've ever seen - I sold the other, with a worn cream color background, for $2350. The only other green sulfide I've seen was the VanBuren portrait in the Warner sale, which sold in 1981 for $2750, with minor defects. A rare opportunity for the advanced collector.	3000.00
6.	Exceptional gilt brass ring "Adams and Liberty", rare political jewelry.	850.00

A few minor stains. All this is mentioned for accuracy, as stated the overall condition is excellent for an early flag. Though there are several Lincoln 1860 portrait flags in Threads of History, there are no previously recorded bearded Lincolns or Lincoln-Johnsons. The only price history for any Lincoln portrait flag was the 1860 example sold by Winter Associates about 5 years ago for $8250, before the significant increases seen in prices of historical textiles. For the Truman or inaugural collector who thinks he has everything. 16x29 polished wood plaque holding pair of 11" bronze medals, obverse and reverse of unofficial inaugural medal by noted sculptor Julio Kilenyi. This piece comes from the estate of William David Simmons, Doorkeeper and Chief Receptionist at White House. Accompanying medal are xerox pages of Pres Appointment calendar that details the history of the medal. Privately commissioned by William Hyman of NY, with approval of Truman and Colonel Louis Johnson, as contribution to Dem Party. Kilenyi made only 2 of these - the medal was never struck in smaller size for any purpose. One of these plaques was given to the Trumans and resides in HST Library. The other was intended "for such disposition as the President may wish to make", and it eventually wound up with Simmons. Bust left, inaug date 1/20/49. Enclosed is my mail auction catalog #12. Once again, my large general sale has been set aside to allow for this small political items catalog. I am halfway through preparing a sale of 4000+ items including political, advertising, military, expositions, sports, toys and character items, police and fire, photography, numismatic, etc. This catalog should be out in the late winter.

I take great pride in offering what are generally considered to be the finest quality mail auctions in the country. In terms of quality of illustrations, correctness of descriptions, and reasonable price estimates, there is seldom need for any apologies on my part. These points, coupled with the overall high quality of the items being offered, induce many first time customers to take part in my sales, even though they may not have done much buying by mail in the past. I pride myself on my reputation for integrity and fair dealings, and for the variety and quality of my inventory. I would urge each of you receiving this catalog to examine it, and if anything appeals to you as a collector or dealer, please let me hear from each of you.

For those of you who have not taken part in mail auctions, the rules are rather simple and are outlined below. In the past decade mail auctions have become a prime source for many types of small collectibles. Buying by mail is simple and easy, and also allows collectors to cut down on the time and expense of travel. I look forward to hearing from each of you.

AUCTION RULES

1. Items are sold to the highest bidder at the bid price.
2. Bidders may place a limit on their winnings by specifying the maximum amount they wish to spend in the auction.
3. Conditional bids are acceptable, such as "If I lose Item A, add $50 to Item B" or "If I don't win Item A, accept the following bids..."
4. Telephone bids are acceptable until midnight on the closing date or until calls cease that night. Bidders may find out the current high bid and then either increase it by a minimum of 10% or pass on that item. The phone rings constantly on the closing night. Calls made earlier in the day should get through to me much easier. I would urge customers to call a day or two prior to the closing date, or to mail in a bidsheet in case they forget to phone. Approximately 80% of the bidders in my sales bid only by mail, and that is certainly the easiest and surest way to get your bids recorded.
5. Mail bids must be postmarked on or before the closing date.
6. I reserve the right to reject any or all bids.
7. Terms are cash, check or money order upon receipt of invoice. Make checks payable to REX STARK.
8. Budget payments of 3 monthly installments are allowed. Please request this at the time of bidding. There is never any service charge on budget payments.
9. All items are guaranteed genuine and as described. Any item may be returned for a prompt refund if not as described.
10. Estimated values are given for all items. These are approximate values in today's market. You may bid higher or lower as you wish.
11. Items will be shipped upon receipt of payment. I reserve the right to hold merchandise until your check clears.
12. Catalog subscription rate is $5.00 for 3 issues. ($8.00 for first class mail). Back issues number 1 to 3 (political items) all for $5.00. Catalogs 4, 5, 6 (all categories, 5000 items each) are $2.00 each. #7, 8 out of stock. #9 (1000 large display items, all categories) is $2.00 #10 (250 items valued $500 and up) is $2.00. #11 (1000 politicals) is $2.00.
